

MONASH University

Information Technology

FIT2001 – Systems Development

Preparing for the exam

Exam Revision - Format, Revision Guide through Seminar Topics

 Everything you need to know about e-Exams

 Exam Revision Slides

3.4MB PDF document

Seminar Exam Revision

 FIT2001 Sample Exam Questions

519KB PDF document

During this seminar we will review the:

- Assessment structure
- Hurdle requirements
- Review the exam format
- Exam resources available to you

Assessments

Assignments – 42%

- 1, 2 & 3 (42%) – INDIVIDUAL mark not Group mark

Tutorial Quizzes and Workshop participation – 8%

- Moodle quizzes (best 8) and workshop participation as assessed by tutor

e-Exam – 50%

- Two-hour, CLOSED invigilated book exam, scheduled during the normal exam period.

Hurdle requirements

Must get

- At least 45% of the Assignment, Quiz and Tutorial participation marks
- At least 45% of the Exam marks

If you just get 45% in each you will not pass

In addition, you must also get:

- At least 50% of the total marks - hopefully much, much more

Information about results

Check out this site:

<https://www.monash.edu/exams/results/grading-update>

Please make sure that you are aware of the details and the implications of any decisions you make.

Exam – How?

- E-exam
 - 2 hours
 - Closed book
 - Invigilated / Supervised

- Information about e-exams:

<https://www.monash.edu/exams/electronic-exams>

Exam format:

- 3 sections - 25 Questions

Sections	Questions	Marks
A: Q 1 - 15	15 Multiple choice questions	15 marks
B: Q 16 - 22	7 Discussion and Evaluation questions	60 marks
C: Q 23 - 25	3 Practical questions	25 marks

- Must complete ALL questions
- Use the marks allocation as a guide to how much time to allocate to the answer.
- Do NOT use the space provided as a guide.

Preparing for the Exam

- Start studying now – don't wait until a few days before the exam because it is some time away
- Understand the difference between list, describe, briefly discuss, discuss
- Don't just write everything you know about something when it is worth 2 marks – think very carefully about the time you have for a question
- Go through ALL the resources provided for you in the Scheduled Final Assessments section of Moodle

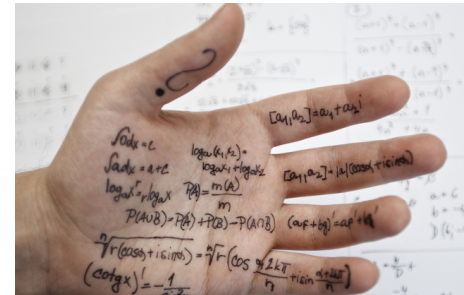

Exam Resources

In 'Scheduled Final Assessments' section of FIT2001 Moodle site:

- Link to all the information about e-exams
- Grading and result information – read very carefully so you know what you are eligible for ... check timelines
- Exam structure – so you are prepared for what the exam will look like
- The Seminar Roadmap slides/video as a guide go through:
 - The seminars and notes you may have taken
 - Your assignments
 - The discussion support material for each workshop
- Preparing for the exam – this video
- Sample Exam questions
- Sample Exam questions discussion videos – ideally should attempt before looking at the discussion video to get maximum benefit
- All Workshop Quizzes – you have unlimited access ... make sure you read the feedback
- Consultation: set times, and you can email us at any time to organize a zoom session

Plagiarism/cheating

- The University and the Faculty have various policies regarding plagiarism that you must make yourself familiar with.

- Cheating in the Exam – you will get caught, and then we have to deal with all the fallout
- Very painful for you and for us
- DO NOT DO IT

We will be available for Exam Consultation and will be assisting on Ed Discussion

There are no past exams
Practice sample exam questions
Review video discussion of each question

Thank you for studying FIT2001

Best of luck for your exams and for your future
We hope you do brilliantly